SENATE PASSES WAR RESOLUTION

Measure Voted on at 3:20 This Morning After Protracted Debate.

72 AYES AND 13 NOES.

Minority Republicans — President Showed His Preponderance of Strength in Upper Body.

Washington, April 22.—The Senate, at 3:20 o'clock this morning passed the Foreign Relations Committee's resolution "justifying" the President's use of the armed forces of the United States in Mexico solely on the ground of the insult to the flag at Tampico and indignities committed against the American uniform.

The adopted resolution is the one which the Foreign Relations Committee reported to the Senate at 12:10 yesterday (Tuesday) morning as a substitute for the measure passed by the House. It was passed on a strictly partisan vote of seventy-two to thirteen, after a bitter struggle on the part of the opposition to make the situation serve as the basis for a political attack on the administration.

The fight raged on the floor of the Senate continuously from noon yesterday until the Republicans were forced to permit the passage of the bill putting the Senate on record as supporting President Wilson's course in the Mexican crisis.

The resolution, while not attacking Huerta by name, as the President had desired, does not contain anything condemnatory of Carranza or Villa; nor does it intimate any failure on the part of the administration to protect American lives and property in Mexico. It will go to the House at noon today and will be accepted by the lower body.

The thirteen Senators who voted against the resolution are all Republicans: They are Brandegee, of Connecticut; Bristow, of Kansas; Dillingham, of Vermont; Gallinger, of New Hampshire; La Follette, of Wisconsin; Lippitt, of Rhode Island; Lodge, of Massachusetts; Norris, of Nebraska; Oliver, of Pennsylvania; Root, of New York; Smoot, of Utah; Weeks, of Massachusetts, and Works, of California.

The following Senators, seventy-two in number, voted "yea:"

Ashurst, Bankhead, Borah, Bradley, Brady, Bryan, Burleigh, Catron, Chilton, Clapp, Clark (Wyoming,) Clarke (Arkansas), Colt, Crawford, Cummins, Fall, Fletcher, Goff, Gore, Hitchcock, Hollis, Hughes, James, Johnson, Jones, Kenyon, Kern, Lane, Lea (Tennessee,) Lee (Maryland), Lewis, McCumber, McLean, Martin, Martine, Newton, O'Gorman, Overman, Owen, Page, Penrose, Perkins, Pittman, Poindexter, Pomerene, Ransdell, Reed, Robinson, Saulsbury, Shafroth, Sheppard, Sherman, Shields, Shively, Simmons, Smith (Georgia), Smith, (Maryland), Smith (Michigan), Smith (South Carolina), Sterling, Sutherland, Swanson, Thomas, Thompson, Thornton, Townsend, Vardaman, Walsh, Warren, West, and Williams.

The war resolution was passed only after numerous amendments and substitutes were offered and beaten down by the President's preponderance of strength in the Senate.

The resolutions adopted is as follows:

"Justifying the employment by the President of the armed forces of the United States.

"In view of the facts presented by the President of the United States in his address delivered to the Congress, in joint session on the twentieth day of April, nineteen hundred and fourteen, with regard to certain affronts and indignities committed against the United States in Mexico, be it

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled.

"That the President is justified in the employment of the armed forces of the United States to enforce his demand for unequivocal amends for certain affronts and indignities committed against the United States.

"Be it further resolved, That the United States disclaims any hostility to the Mexican people or any purpose to make war upon Mexico."

SWANSON'S "WAR" RESOLUTION.

Virginians Are Taking Active Part in Washington's Dramatic Scenes.

Washington, April 22—Several of the Virginia Congressmen returned to the capital shortly bfeore midnight following the circulation of the reports that actual hostilities had commenced at Vera Cruz. Congressman Flood, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, Watson, Glass, Hay, and Saunders appeared upon the floor of the Senate, took seats and listened attentively to the debate.

Senator Swanson, who, as a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, occupies a position somewhat similar to that held in the House by Flood, is the author of the resolution adopted by the Senate committee reported out. Swanson wrote the resolution after conferring with Secretary Bryan and Mr. Flood, so there is no conflict between the two Virginians.

Both Senators Martin and Swanson, although strongly in favor of the passage of the resolution indorsing the president's course were so anxious to have it adopte dspeedily by the Senate that they stated at midnight that they did not intend to make any speech on the resolution.

During the evening almost all the President's cabinet appeared on the floor. They gathered in groups of twos and threes and listened attentively, at times exchanging opinions and making remarks upon certain points brought out in debate. Those present were Secretary Bryan, Secretary McAdoo, Secretary Lane, Secretary Garrison, Seccetary Daniels and Attorney-General McReynolds. Secretary to the President Tumulty was also present. All remained throughout the long hours of debate, and expressed their intention of remaining until the final adoption of the resolution.

A report reached the Senate press gallery, and spread like wildfire about 11 o'clock, that Congressman Flood had called upon Secretary of State Bryan to resign. It received no credence from those at all familiar with the close relations existing betweeen them. Mr. Flood, when asked concerning the rumor, emphatically denied it, saying that he was at a loss to understand how such a report could have started, as the Secretary of State and himself were the closest of friends and thoroughly in accord with the Mexican policy.

AMERICAN FLEET SHELLS VERA CRUZ

Work of Capturing Entire Place Began at Early Hour Today.

TAMPICO IS SEIZED.

House of Representatives Passes Resolution As it Came From the House This Morning.

Vera Cruz, April 22.—The American forces are now in entire possession of the city; apparently there are no fatalities among American and foreign non-combatants.

Firing has ceased except for occasional picket shots.

Fire has broken out in various parts of the city.

Under cover of the guns a force of 3,000 marines and bluejackets landed at 8 o'clock this morning by Admiral Fletcher, and by noon were in possession of half of the city. At 11.30 they were reinforced by 2,000 marines from Admiral Badger's newly arived ships.

Three thousand American bluejackets and marines are now sweeping forward in formation of an extended fan, driving the Mexicans before them out of the city.

An ineffectual defense was offered by the federal garrison under General Maas, at 8, but their guns were silenced after two hours' bombardment.

It is expected the city will be under American control by sundown.

Details of Mexican casualties are not available, but it is believed that 150 have been killed or wounded.

The federal barracks near the center of the city was deserted by its garrison shortly after the shelling commenced.

Flames from the burning custom house, the Municipal Theatre, and the station of the Interoceanic railroad can be seen.

The shells have wrecked most of the larger buildings and towers which in the early hours were filled with Mexican sharpshooters.

There is a strong force of marines about the American consulate to guard the scores of refugees who are detained there until the bombardment ceases.

Washington, April 22.—With the support of the big guns from the fleet in the harbor, the capture of the entire city of Vera Cruz was begun early today by Admiral Fletcher's marines and bluejackets, according to a dispatch received by the State Department.

Under cover of a heavy fire from the big guns of the Atlantic fleet a force of bluejackets and marines began an advance at 8 o'clock. Aided by the mortars of the Prairie the fleet is shelling the resident section still held by the Mexicans. The extent of the fighting is not known.

General Huerta has asked the United State Government to withrdaw Charge O'Shaughnessy from Mexico city.

This is a semi-official statement this morning. It is expected that an official confirmation will be given out later.

The House passed the resolution justifying the President in ordering the armed forces of the United States to enter Mexico by a viva voce vote at 10:28 today and sent it to the President.

Admiral Fletcher today will bombard Vera Cruz unless all resistance to its occupation by the United States marines ceases.

Gravest fears are felt by the administration for the safety of Americans in the mexican capital and elsewhere in the interior. Little confidence is placed in Huerta's ability to protect them even should he exert his utmost efforts in that direction.

The passenger train loaded with Americans, which left the capital yesterday morning, has not yet arrived at Vera Cruz. Telegraph wires have been cut between the city and the seaport and it is feared that the railroad has been torn up by the Federals under General Maas, who were driven from Vera Cruz yesterday.

Officials are fearing hourly the arrival of news of massacres and every effort is being made to establish communication with the interior.

It is stated here that the marines have landed at Tampico and seized the custom house and cable office. No official confirmation of this has been received.

In an official dispatch this morning Rear Admiral Fletcher stated that the United States forces at Vera Cruz obtained possession of all of the ammunition and machine guns which were landed yesterday and consigned to General Huerta. The arrival of this shipment of arms on board the German ship Ypiranga yesterday is what precipitated the engagement.

The last word received from Charge O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City was that he was all right and little credence is put in the rumor of his assassination.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, April 22.—Vera Cruz will be bombarded today by the American fleet under Rear Admiral Fletcher if further resistance is shown the marines and bluejackets now in possession of the section of the city abut the United States consulate, the custom house, cable office and the wharves.

This warning was sent to General Maas, military commander of Vera Cruz and Commander of the Federal garrison, late last night.

AMERICANS IN TERROR.

Uprising Against Foreigners Feared as Result of News From Vera Cruz.

Mexico City, April 22.—The city was in turmoil last night, as a result of the publication of the news from Vera Cruz of the American invasion and of Mexicans killed in the fighting.

Crowds were going about the streets and a general uprising is feared.

The foreigners are banding themselves together for protection.

U. S. FORCES AT VERA CRUZ.

Washington, April 23.—The Navy Department announced last night that the United States forces in Vera Cruz and vicinity consisted of the battleships Florida, Utah, Connecticut, Minnesota and the cruisers San Francisco and Chester; gunboat Dolphin, transports Prairie and Hancock, hospital ship Solace and collier Cyclops, as well as the chartered steamers Esperanza and Mexico.

This concentration of forces totaling about 7,000 sailors and nearly 2,000 marines, is made up of Rear Admiral Mayo's ships, which had been ordered from Tampico late yesterday, and the ships which Rear Admiral Fletcher has had at Vera Cruz for many weeks.

Urge Peace in Juarez.

Washington, April 22.—Gen. Pancho Villa, commanding the constitutionalist forces in northern Mexico, will arrive at Juarez this afternoon, according to dispatches received at the State Department. The dispatch says officials in Juarez are using all precautions to prevent any disturbance in the town. Such measures were taken to prevent any outbreak of feeling or an embroligio that would involve the constitutionalists and Americans.

FOUR AMERICANS KILLED IN BATTLE

Fighting in Vera Cruz Results in Killing 200 Mexicans.

FIGHT ON HOUSETOPS.

Hour After Hour Huerta's Forces Oppose Americans — Fierce Fighting in Streets of the City.

Washington, April 22, — Four Americans were killed and twenty wounded when a detachment of bluejackets and marines from the American fleet seized the custom house and district near the waterfront of Vera Cruz yesterday. The United States flag now flies over the city.

Those killed were a coxswain, a corporal and two privates.

Two hundred Mexicans were reported killed, and Admiral Fletcher warned the Huerta commander that the big guns of the American fleet will be used unless he stops the fighting.

The capture of the custom house was ordered to prevent a big shipment of ammunition and guns carried in a German ship from getting into Huerta's hands.

It was made clear that the Mexicans do not propose to permit a peaceful passage of the American flag from Vera Cruz to the capital.

President Wilson is determined that further steps against Huerta shall not be taken for the present, the future depending upon the action of the dictator's authorities.

The American marines and bluejackets which will be assembled at Vera Cruz within 48 hours will number about 15,000.

Admiral Badger arrived at Vera Cruz with the Atlantic fleet.

Charge O'Shaughnessy, at the direction of the State Department vised the foreign diplomatic body in Mexico City to have their nationals leave Mexico.

There has been no intimation so far as to what part the army is to take in carrying out the Mexican program.

All the chaplains of the navy now on shore duty were ordered to sea duty.

It is a coincidence that the first gun first gun fired in Mexican campaign occurred on anniversary of commencement of the war with Spain.

Vera Cruz, April 22.—The Americans have captured Vera Cruz, but at the cost of the lives of several men and a much larger number wounded.

The Mexicans, under General Gustavo Maas, the commandant of Vera Cruz, put up a stubborn resistance.

General Maas challenged the advance of the Americans almost from the first, and made it clear that the Mexicans do not propose to permit a peaceful occupation.

Less than half an hour after leaving the side of the United States transport Prairie the marines had landed in the absence of resistance at the waterfront and failure on the part of the Mexicans to contest the taking of a position somewhat in from the waterfront caused the curious spectators in the street to laugh, and when one Mexican peon ran for cover, having had the temerity to shout at the top of his voice "Viva Mexico!" loud guffaws came from the onlookers.

But the lull was not indicative of compliance. A few shots came within a few minutes and later a brief exchange, and the spectators, whose curiosity alone brought them into the street, lingered, thinking it was only a show of resistance.

But after another brief interfighting in earnest began, and hour after hour the Mexicans continued to oppose the Americans fiercely in some quarters, although the main body apparently seemed ready to quit.

Most of the firing was done by outpost parties placed on roofs of houses at various points of vantage, whose only choice was to keep on firing or surrender.

The guns of the Prairie assisted the landing party. Toward evening the fighting continued, but it was more of a housetop character than a determined organized resistance.

Finally, the Mexican soldiers who had not been captured, killed or wounded, retreated westward.

The Misses Maynard of Williamsport, Penn., are the guests of Misses Nancy and Sophie Tackett in south St. Asaph street.

Caught in a Wheel.

Caught in the wheel of a heavily-laden wagon, which he attempted to board in Atlantic City yesterday, Joseph Patharantza, 6 years old, was carried around between the wheel and the wagon and so twisted and torn that he died in the hospital. The lad's younger brother stood petrified for a brief period, but finally his frenzied shrieks gained the attention of the driver, who stopped. It was with the greatest difficulty that the terribly injured lad was finally extricated. At the hospital it was found that he had been injured internally and had sustained terrible lacerations of the head and body. William Long, the driver, was arrested, but eye-witnesses of the tragedy state that he was not to blame.

Germany on Watch.

Berlin, April 22.—The German people and the newspapers are taking a deep interest in the Mexican situation. The papers display prominently the latest news in regard to the situation, but are reserved in their comments. The officials of the foreign office decline to make any statement as to how Germany views the latest action of the United States, but a high official made the following statement:

"In the conflict between the United States and Mexico the attitude of Germany will be one of the strictest neutrality. Germany takes the stand that it would serve German interests most and best if order was restored in Mexico as soon as possible. No one in Berlin has any sympathy with the present conditions in Mexico, and so far as Germany is concerned no obstacle of difficulty will be placed in the way of American action, nor will America be embarrassed in any way."

Army May Not be Needed.

Washington, April 22.—A War Department expert expressed the opinion that the naval forces will be sufficient to clear up the Mexican situation. He said absolutely no orders had been issued to the army today, although every officer in the department was "on the job" ready for momentary action

RAISING MONEY FOR HOSPITAL

Executive Committee Met Last Night and Manifested Encouragement.

$5,100 IS SUBSCRIBED.

Doctors and Ladies Connected With the Hospital Also Meet—Pledges Can Run Through 12 Months.

The executive committee of the hospital fund held an interesting meeting last night and the reports were of the most encouraging character. At the present time it was stated that the contributions aggregate $5,100.00 Committees were appointed to continue an active canvas of subscriptions and literature, contribution blanks and literature. It was also stated that there had been a very enthusiastic meeting of the doctors of the city and the ladies connected with the hospital. A large black board was erected during the day and will be lit up with electricity at night.

The committee desires to impress upon everyone the fact that all contributions can be divided into 12 parts, so as to run through 12 months, should the contributor so desire.

The committee that called upon the primary class in one of the schools stated to the children that any contribuiton by any one of them would be gratefully received and appreciated, and would in fact be greater than a $100.00 contribution by a rich man. At the conclusion of the address a little mite of a girl arose, came up to the speaker and handed him a penny, saying that it was given her to buy a stick of condy, but she preferred to give it to the hospital.

The colored Odd Fellows of the city have decided to give a benefit for the hospital fund on May 2.

Letters were sent out yesterday to the various societies and organizations, and the Eastern Star sent in this morning a contribution of $100.00 to the fund.

To show how the people are feeling in this town, one large enterprise including forty or fifty hands was reported by the manager to have subscribed about $60.00 in small contributions, when only seven of the employes were seen.

The hospital workers have been active all day and are very much encouraged as all Alexandrians, old and young, apparently are enthused over the project of having an up-to-date hospital and as the people begin to understand the real necessity for such an institution they are becoming very liberal in their donations and there is little doubt as to the outcome of this campaign to secure $50,000 for the hospital but all must do their part.

The committees are anxious that all the donations shall be made as soon as possible so as to close the canvas for contributions to enable the business men who are giving most of their time to this work to return to their business at the earliest possible date.

As an evidence of the interest being taken one contributor stated that he had been in the hospital for several weeks nad was restored to health and most satisfactorily attended to. He therefore felt that it was a duty and a pleasure to make as large a contribution as possible.

Another stated that he was bordering on seventy years of age, and had a number of children and that as none of them ever been in need of a hospital he felt that there was an obligation upon him to make a liberal contribution to the fund as an evidence of his gratitude for Divine protection in relieving him and his of the necessity of a hospital.

Damage Suit Will Cause Court to Determine Who is Responsible for Defective Sidewalks

The question of the responsibility for the maintenance in proper repair of the sidewalks of Alexandria will be brought before the Corporation Court tomorrow for settlement when Judge L. C. Barley, sitting in that court will hear the evidence in the suit of Clarence J. Vliet, an employe of the government printing office in Washington against the city council of Alexandria. Mr. Vliet is suing for $10,000 which he alleges should be paid him by the city for injuries received by a fall on a sidewalk. The plaintiff was hurt on December 29th, 1909, when he slipped on an iron cellar door in front of the premises at 322 King street and fell on another iron door in front of an adjoinning premises. The door was covered with snow and Mr. Vliet says he fell with such force that his knee cap was shattered and that since that time he has been unable to walk.

A special jury from Fairfax county has been ordered to hear the evidence.

The plaintiff is represented by Attorney Leo P. Harlow, of this city, and Henry I. Quinn, of Washington, and the City Council by Attorneys Samuel P. Fisher, corporation attorney and Samuel G. Brent, commonwealth attorney.

HINT TO PRACTICAL JOKERS.

Example of Richmond Police Justice May be Followed in Alexandria

Richmond, Va., April 22.—"It is the opinion of this court that the sale of 'sneeze powder,' 'stench bombs,' and 'itch powder,' clearly constitute a common nuisance, and I shall find the defendant $10," said Justice Crutchfeld in the Police Court in Richmond yesterday in passing judgment on W. H. Boze, proprietor of a novelty store at 9th and Broad streets.

Boze was arrested after 14-year-old Bernard Johnson, 2601 East Franklin street, had been taken into custody for scattering "sneeze powder" among the audience in the Lyric Theatre. He told the police he bought the stuff from Boze.

Boze appealed from Justice Crutchfield's decision through his counsel Gilbert K. Pollock, who was unwilling to admit that Boze was guilty of committing a nuisance. Boze's trial in the Hustings Court will be in the nature of a test case.

The youth who started all the trouble was placed on probation after a hearing in the juvenile court. He seemed repentant

"I have a clear recollection of the distressing consequences of distributing a pinch of any of these powders in a room filled with people," the judge said before announcing his decision "Less than ten days ago some indiscreant scattered 'sneeze powder' around this court room. Gentlemen believe me, it was something awful If I could have detected the guilty person on that occasion I should have put him behind the bars in a hurry."

Certain practical jokers in Alexandria have recently been using this nuisance referred to above, occasioning annoyance to people gathered in public buildings. A few weeks ago some stench bombs were exploded in a moving picture show which caused some persons to stampede from the hall.

KEEL LAID FOR NEW TUG.

Solomons Island Firm Begins Work on L. C. Smoot's New Boat.

Construction work on the tug which M. M. Davis & Son at Solomons Island, Md., are building for L. C. Smoot, has been commenced, the keel of the vessel having been laid in the past month. The new tug, which is to be used in Mr. Smoot's sand and gravel business on the Potomac, is to be ready for service in the coming summer. She will be modern in all particulars, and will be equipped with powerful machinery to enable her to tow a large number of loaded scows. Mr. Smoot now has two tugs, the Rosalie and Eugene, in service on the river.

It is also stated that a small steamboat designed for freight service on the Potomac river is to be built at the Davis yard, and that material for it is now being made ready.

DEATH OF MISS EDMONDS.

Young Woman Passes Away After a Short Illness.

Miss Ruth K. Edmonds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Edmonds, died at her home, 423 Queen street, at 5:45 o'clock yesterday evening after a brief illenss. The deceased had been employed in Mr. R. E. Knight's store during the past five years. About six weeks ago she was compelled to relinquish her occupation by reason of indisposition. Miss Edmonds had a large circle of friends and acquaintances who will regret to learn of her death. She was 21 years old.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

JACKSON FUND ASSURED.

Richmond Asked to Provide Base And Pedestal for Equestrian Statue.

Richmond, April 22.—Headed by Rev. James Power Smith, D. D., president of the Stonewall Jackson Monument Corporation, a strong delegation of citizens appeared last night before the Council Finance Committee to urge an appropriation of $10,000 for the construction of a foundation and pedestal for the proposed monument to the great Confederate leader.

Dr. Smith outlined the movement for the erection of a Jackson monument in Richmond, and told of the encouraging response that has been given the appeal for funds by citizens of Virginia and other States. Money already in hand and promised, he said, assures the success of the project. The recent General Assembly made an appropriation of $10,000 for the monument, and the city of Richmond is asked merely to provide a suitable foundation and pedestal. Dr. Smith said that an appropriation of $10,000, or so much thereof as might be found to be necessary for the pedestal would be satisfactory.

Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson assured the committee that if the amount needed for the erection of the monument is not in hand by the next session of the General Assembly, that body would appropriate enough money to make up the deficit. Judge D. C. Richardson thought it was as little as the city could do to provide a suitable foundation and pedestal for a monument which will mean so much to Richmond in a material way, if in no other. Captain W. M. Myers said that the Jackson monument will cost between $50,000 and $60,000, and will be erected within two years.

The local committee in charge of arrangements for the big public meeting that will be held in the city auditorium on the evening of April 29 in the interest of the monument project, announced yesterday that Mrs. Jackson has accepted the invitation to be present. Mrs. Jackson's home is in Charlotte, N. C.

The auditorium meeting will be the preliminary to Stonewall Jackson Monument Day, which will be observed throughout the State on May 1. A united effort will be made by the Southern Confederate and patriotic organizations on that day to raise the money needed for completing the monument fund. The meeting at the auditorium will be attended by the several military bodies of the city. The John Marshall High School chorus will sing, and several speakers will make short addresses.

In common with all other business before the Finance Committee last night, the matter of making the monument appropriation asked for, was postponed until the next meeting of the committee on May 7. The speakers who addressed the committee made out a strong case for the appropriation, and the Councilmen appeared deeply impressed.

VIRGINIA FORCES READY.

All Citizens Between Eighteen And Forty-five Subject to Duty.

Richmond, Va., April 22.—Adjutant General Sale said yesterday that it was clear to him that with the consent of the Governor, when a call is issued, the Virginia troops would be available for service at any point. He also declared that if there was any question among the officers of the war Department that he was confident that the Virginia militia, as a body, would volunteer for service, either within or beyond the borders of the United States. The question of acceptance, according to General Sale, would rest with the officers who would have to pass on the men.

General Sale said that there is at this time available for field service in this State not less than 2,675 men, in all branches of the service. He said that in case there should be a call for 250,000 men that about double this number would be taken from Virginia.

"It is a rather remarkable thing," Said Gen. Sale, "that there is coming to this office more requests for assignment to service than we can possibly handle. They are coming by personal calls, by telephone, by telegram, by mail. The men are ready to engage for service. There will not be the least trouble in getting double the number of men that Virginia might be called on to furnish, many of them with military experience and many of them graduates of the Virginia Military Institute."

General Sale was greatly pleased at this, and all the applications are being filed away for future reference.

Governor Stuart, said General Sale, in case there is call for troops, would get the call and it would be transmitted through regular channels. When the call comes, if it does, it will be at once promulgated and sent to the officers of the various commands. The Governor will have to designate the point of mobilization ,and that would most likely be Richmond, where the railroads converge and where adequate camp facilities are at hand.

Following is the State law declaring who compose the militia of the State, and the federal law regulating the matter of service:

Section 300. First, the militia of this state shall consist of all able-bodied male persons between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, except such persons as may be exempted by the laws of the United States or of this State; but those who belong to religious societies whose tenets forbid the carrying of arms shall not be compelled to do so; provided, they pay an equivalent for personal service.

Under the provisions of the Dick bill, pertaining to the militia organizations of the States, there is this provision:

Article 1, Paragraph 18, Section 5. That whenever the President calls forth the organized militia of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, to be employed in the military service of the United State, he must specify in his call the period for which such service is required, and the militia so called shall continue to serve during the term so specified, either within or without the territory of t United States, unless sooner relieved by order of the President. Provided, that no commisioned officer or eenlisted man shall be held to service beyond the time of his existing commission or enlistment.

Thus it will be seen that the militia of Virginia, in case there is a call for troops will be eligible for service at any point to which they may be ordered after the President has called on the Governor of Virginia for such troops.

This point has been in dispute for some time, but the military laws above quoted would seem to settle the ma ter for all time and beyond dispute. When the question of the pay of officers was debated in Congress the question of the eligibility or the liability of state commands was referred to, but the debaters could not exactly get clear of the plain provisions of the law.

Michael P. Tierney, a Northumberland squire, who is athletic, yesterday gave a sound thrashing to Clarence Feathers, because he gave his wife a black eye. Mrs. Feathers came into his office crying and with an eye bandaged, and wanted her "hub" sent to jail. She explained that because she did not have supper ready exactly when he came home he hit her and knocked her down. She weighs 95 and he 160 pounds. Squire Tierney sent for Feathers, and when he came in Tierney locked the door, took off his coat and punched Feathers until he begged for mercy.

ASTOR WOULD RESIDE IN VA.

Negotiations For Purchase Have Been Delayed by Millionaire's Illness.

Richmond, Va., April 22.—If negotiations which were begun just before Vincent Astor was taken ill are consummated, the young New Yorker, known as the richest young man in the world, will shortly be the owner of "Brandon," the old Harrison home on James river.

It is known definitely that agents acting for young Astor, have recently been busy ascertaining the condition, market value and price of the estate, it being Vincent Astor's desire to own an old Virginia place and to become a citizen of this state.

Pending the young man's illness the negotiations have been delayed, it said, but they will probably be resumed as soon as he is able to return to business matters.

"Brandon, now known as "Low Brandon," since the estate was cut in half, has been in the Harrison family for over 200 years It originally contained about 8,000 acres and was known as one of the most magnificen river estates in the country.

The old Harrison homestead is on "Lower Brandon," and contains hundreds of historical relics worth thousands of dollars.

Whether young Astor desires to buy the old furniture is not known, but he will likely take over the place just as it stands; that is, if the pending deal is closed.

The proposed purchase of the old Harrison place is being discussed with great interest by those living on the river as a number of colonial homes have recently been sold to wealthy northerners desirous of establishing summer homes in Virginia.

"Curl's Neck," one of the show places of the State, was bought a short time ago by C. K. G. Billings, of New York and Cleveland. He is converting the splendid farm into a breeding place for thoroughbreds, having sent from New York and Kentucky a number of brood mares and stallions known all over the United States for their pedigrees.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Norfolk, April 22.—T. S. Charles, 47 years old, was arrested by Detective Dednam and Patrolman Petty at 2:55 o'clock yesterday morning on the charge of setting fire to the residence of Mrs. M. B. Seymour, 317 Cumberland street, at an early hour this morning. He is alleged to have started a fire in the pantry of Mrs. Seymour's home by setting fire to a box loaded with cotton and wood.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Seymour about 1:40 o'clock when she came down to get a drink of water.

She notified the police and on investigation, the officers arrested Charles and Mrs. Seymour secured a warrant charging him with setting fire to the place. Another warrant charging him with defrauding a board bill of $21 was secured by Mrs. Gabriela Weinstein, 227 Fenchurch street, where Charles has been boarding.

Farmer Shoots Himself.

King George, Va., April 21.—William S. Farmer, of King George, shot himself in the head yesterday, and is in a critical condition. He has been in ill health for four months, and was almost crazed with pain. He is sixty-five years old. He has a wife, who was Miss Gertrude Walker, and nine children, four of whom live in Washington.

WILSON CROSSES THE RUBICON.

While the Senate of the United States was discussing the House resolution sustaining the President in his action toward Mexico, boys were running through streets during the wee sma' hours of last night crying extra papers announcing that the flag of the United States was flying over Vera Cruz after four Americans had been killed and a number wounded in a street fight.

My voice is still for war.
Gods! can a Senate long debate
Which of the two to choose—insult or death?

The above, slightly altered, is applicable to the republican senators who delayed action on the house resolutions until after three o'clock this morning.

The first war with Mexico lasted about a year and a half. The duration of the conflict precipitated yesterday is problematical.

Conditions in Mexico have been an annoyance not only to the United States, but equally so to other nations, and European countries have during the past few years urged the United States to police the country if the Monroe doctrine was to be insisted upon.

Mexico has for nearly half a century been acting defiantly and aggressively toward the United States and the latter has been forced to act in order to maintain the respect due our nation.

A cotemporary yesterday printed the message of James K. Polk, president of the United States when the first conflict with Mexico took place. Mr. Polk in his communication to Congress complained of acts upon the part of our southern neighbor similar to those Mr. Wilson has had to meet.

Now that the ball is open, there is but one thing to do—let it be a fight to the finish.

CAPT. BERRY TO BLAME.

Supervising Inspector Holds Master of Nantucket Was Negligent In The Fog.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 22—Captain Osmyn Berry, of the Merchants' and Miners' packet Nantucket, was found guilty of negligence in the collision which resulted in the sinking of the Old Dominion liner Monroe off the Virginia capes on the morning of January 31, with the loss of 41 lives, and his license as a master was revoked. Responsibility for the sinking of the Monroe was fixed by Captain Henry M. Seeley, of New York, supervisor for the local district of the Federal Steamboat Inspection Service, into whose hands the case passed after a trial board composed of the two Philadelphia inspectors failed to fix the blame.

Captain Seely's decision was approved by Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce, and was made public yesterday. The finding will likely have a bearing on the suit for $1,000,000 damages instituted in Norfolk against the owners of the Monroe against the owners of the Nantucket.

The trial of Captain Berry was held in this city early in February after Inspector Captain Tapley, of Norfolk, who had made a preliminary investigation of the collision, recommended that the captain of the Nantucket be held for trial. Inspectors Howard and Sargent were ordered to sit as a trial board and, after a hearing which continued for more than two weeks and during which 3,200 typewritten pages of testimony was introduced, they disagreed in their findings. Inspector Howard held Captain Berry responsible for the collision, while Inspector Sargent absolved the captain of the Nantucket from blame and severely scored Captain Johnson of the Monroe, for alleged neglect in not making an organized effort to save the lives of the passengers on board the sinking vessel.

The report made by Captain Seeley of his findings in the case states that on the night of the collision there was a fog known as a "low-lying" fog, in which, while it was possible to see the sky and stars, it was not possible to distinguish objects on the water clearly. Notwithstanding this, Captain Berry was proceeding at full speed. The report also states that Captain Berry heard the signals of the Monroe but did not slacken his speed in time to avoid a collision. Captain Seely held that Captain Berry could have located the Monroe nearly a mile away and by exercising due caution he could have averted the collision.

No reference was made in the report as to whether Captain Johnson was culpable, as his case did not come before the trial board or Captain Seeley for consideration. He was merely called as a witness at the trial of Captain Berry following the findings of the Norfolk inspectors.

UNFOUNDED RUMOR.

Reported in El Paso That O'Shaughnessy Has Been Killed.

El Paso, April 22.—It is rumored here that Charge O'Shaughnessy has been murdered in Mexico City.

A dispatch has been received from Galveston saying that O'Shaughnessy was murdered in Mexico City.

Captain Bristol, in charge of the telegraphic service of the War and Navy Department, discredits the reports that O'Shaughnessy has been killed. He says nothing has been heard from O'Shaughnessy or Consul Shanklin and that if anything had happened to them a report would have been sent immediately from Mexico City.

Vera Cruz, April 22.—The Huerta troops are abandoning Puerto Mexico to the rebels.

The British consul has called on the British admiral for aid.

The American consulate is packed with American refugees who did not heed the warning to leave in time.

The excitment over what little "war news" came over the wires yesterday filled the atmosphere of the Military Academy, at West Point. Rumors of early graduation of the class of 1914 and the departure for the front of its individual members flew thick and fast all day. It is understood that preparations for a possible premature graduation of the class are under way and that only the word from Washington is waited. The members of the class are feverishly active and interested.

DON'T EXPERIMENT.

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Alexandria Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are frequently symptoms of kidney trouble, and a remedy which is recommended for the kidneys should be taken in time.

Doan's Kidney Pills is a good remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has acted effectively in many cases, in Alexandria. Follow the advice of an Alexandria citizen.

Mrs. G. W. Davis, 107 Prince St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I owe my health to Doan's Kidney Pills. I have used them frequently during the past seven years and they have often brought me relief after everything else had failed. Doctors treated me for a long while and said my case was a severe one. I had undergone tortures from the complaint and often I was all worn out. When I had almost given up hope, I took oDan's Kidney Pills. They have strengthened me and rid me of kidney trouble."

BIG AGRICULTURAL LAND OPENING

TWELVE HUNDRED AND FIFTY TRACTS of five and ten acres each to be granted in prospective settlers in throwing open Twenty Thousand Acres of Rich, Southern Georgia Land, which is admirably adapted to the growing of celery, sweet and Irish potatoes, cantaloupes, water melons, corn, oats, cotton, hay—in fact all staple crops grown in this fertile section, as well as a large variety of semi-tropical fruits, and the famous immensely profitable paper-shell pecans.

Providing you are eligible under the classifications prescribed by us, you are now offered an excellent opportunity to break away from the drudgery and toil of a small wage, or working for the benefit of landlords, and go back to the land of plenty, to which, if granted, you will hold a warranty deed and abstract.

The best security on earth is the earth itself and land is the basis of all wealth. Owners of productive lands are benefitting by the increasing high cost of living, while others are suffering from it.

An Opportunity to Secure Rich Productive Land Without Capital.

You will not be required to leave your present surroundings now. All we ask of those to whom we grant tracks is that they plant or arrange a crop of one of the above-mentioned products within three years, after which we will have it operated (harvested and replanted) for grantees, in consideration of 25 per cent. of the net profits derived from the sale of the crops, thereby allowing the grantee to pursue his or her present occupation until such time as they determine just what the yield of their acres amounts to. Consider what this may mean as a source of income, when statistics show that the yield of one acre of celery amounted to $1,268.45, and that one acre of well-cared-for paper-shell pecans, in full bearing, should net its owner as high as $500.00 per year. We are of the opinion that after it is proven by actual results obtained in operating the land that they will need no further arguing, and waste no time in locating on this land of plenty. We also require grantees to occupy the land within ten years, or sell it to some one who will occupy it, otherwise it reverts back to the grantor.

The land included in this opening is located directly on and adjoining the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, about twenty-five miles west of Brunswick, a thriving city of fifteen thousand, having direct steamship service to New York and Boston, and excellent railroad transportation facilities to all points. The average temperature for six months of the year, from April to October, is 77 degrees; the climate is most healthful, delightful, and invigorating, and there is an ample rainfall of 51 inches per year.

Our Aim is For Mutually Beneficial Results.

As we are extremely desirous of having settlers locate on this property, and assist in its development, and thereby greatly increase the value of surrounding and intervening property, which we will hold and to increase the traffic along the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, and thus facilitate the service, we feel warranted in granting these tracts to those who register with us. We also have in mind business and residence plots which we will offer for sale after the opening, but which will not be included in it. We have "money-making afterward" considerations in this liberal-minded opening similar to those of the Northern Pacific and other railroads when they granted their lands, and we expect to benefit thereby, as well as the ones who will receive the tracts.

We have also planned to develop what is designed to be the best equipped, most up-to-date, scientific, commercial farm and orchard in existence. It will consist of six thousand acres and will be included in this opening. All who register and receive tracts will get the benefit of the experiments and scientific methods in vogue thereon. While we are arranging to prevent over-registration, we will avoid many disappointments, such as occurred in other land openings conducted by the United States Government and railroads, by granting those who register in excess of the number of tracts to be granted, an interest in this commercial farm and orchard enterprise, in the hope that they may later locate in one of our town sites.

Examination of the land will be cheerfully permitted, and the opening will be held at Browntown, Wayne county, Georgia, one of the stations of the A. B. & A. Railroad, which is located on this property, and will occur as soon after the closing of registrations as arrangements can be made.

The presence of those registered will not be necessary at Browntown on the opening day, unless they wish to attend, for there will be no favoritism shown any one. It will be conducted by a committee selected for the purpose, and those registered will be notified of what they have been granted, as soon as possible.

With an ever-increasing population of this country there is no corresponding increase in the area of land, and naturally as the population increases and seeks the land in pursuit of health, happiness and independence, it will continue to be harder to secure.

The prosperous and contented class in Europe today are the descendants of those who secured land there when it was plentiful, while the descendants of those who obtained no land are now the peasants and slaves. You must realize that this may be your last chance to secure land in this country without a large outlay of capital, so it should not be necessary to urge you to act at once by forwarding us the application for registration attached to this announcement.

IN CHANCERY.

An affidavit having been duly made, as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that he cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this state, and the sergeant having made a return upon the original process or summons. That the defendant is a non-resident of his bailiwick, and application having been duly made in open court for an order of publication against said defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of cruelty and wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and an order of publication having been duly granted in open court, it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within fifteen days after due publication hereof to answer the suit of complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of cruelty and wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and to do what may be necessary to protect his interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in Alexandria City, Virginia, and that a copy be sent by registered mail by the clerk to this court to the last known place of address, residence and abode of defendant, to-wit, on Washington street, Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, as stated in the application for this order of publication which shall be certified by the clerk to this court, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the courthouse of this court on or before the next rule day of this court.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

VETERANS WITH PRESIDENT.

Washington, April 22.—Declaring that while the advanced age and physical infirmities of the veterans of the civil war who followed the fortunes of Lee and Jackson in the Confederate armies would prevent their active participation in the conflict between this country and Mexico, every survivor of the Confederate armies and navies stands ready to give his moral support to President Wilson and "Old Glory" in upholding the dignity and honor of his country.

Magnus Thompson, a past commander of the United Confederate Veterans, Camp No. 1741, last night thus put the veterans on record in a brief address as a prelude to the reading of an historic paper. He stirred the large gathering of veterans, and grandchildren at a meeting in Confederate Memorial Home in Vermont avenue.

The occasion was an historic night to which Camp No. 174, as host, had invited all other Confederate patriotic organizations of the city, including members of the several chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Sons of Veterans.

The paper read by Mr. Thompson, who is librarian of the Navy Department, was "The Trans-Mississippi Campaign of General Shirley Price, C. S. A." Mrs. Frederick Beall played several selections of old war songs on the piano. Captain Frederick Beall, commander of the camp, presided. The Confederate choir sang a number of Confederate and other patriotic songs.

Explosion in Hotel.

Macoun, Sask., April 22.—Investigation into the cause of the gas explosion which wrecked a local hotel Monday, killing nine persons who were in the dining rom, was begun today.

So suddenly did the floor andwalls of the dining room collapse and sink into the basement that few persons in the room escaped death or injury. Most of those who perished were pinned beneath the debris and burned almost beyond recognition.

HUERTA'S FORCE SMALL.

John Lind Says he Has Only About 2,500 Effective Troops in Mexico City.

Washington, April 22.—John Lind, special envoy of President Wilson to Mexico City, told friends last night following the news from Vera Cruz that General Huerta has no more than 2,500 effective troops in the Mexican capital with which he can resist an American invasion.

Practically the entire Mexican Army that has remained loyal to Huerta is in the field against the Constitutionalists of the north and against the Zapatistas of the south. Merely a handful of soldiers are now garrisoned in Mexico City itself, Mr. Lind is quoted as saying.

Mr. Lind did not know the size of the garrison that engaged the marines at Vera Cruz yesterday, but he does not believe the number exceeds 1,000 men.

It is not known in Washington outside of official circles just how many men will be needed to invade Mexico and occupy Mexico City, but it is estimated that not more than 10,000 will be sent to Vera Cruz for the overland movement in any event.

It is surprising to most observers of the situation here that Huerta in his impoverished condition should defy the United States and deliberately bring upon himself a conflict, the end of which is inevitable. It is explained only on the theory that the Provisional President realizes fully that he has lost one way or another and that he would perfer to make one spectacular stand against the United States than to take his chances against Villa.

RUMOR OF MURDERS.

Anxiety Concerning American Citizens in Interior of Mexico

Washington, April 22—Overshadowing anything else in the Mexican situation today was anxiety for the safety of the many Americans and other foreigners in the interior of that country Grave apprehension for them was felt by every officer of the administration Sinister rumors of anti-American massacres at several points have been circulated. They are fortunately not confirmed, but they have to add to the general fear that a bloody story of treachery yet will be told in connection with the events immediately following the landnig of Fletcher's Marine and bluejackets at Vera Cruz.

President Wilson at the White House, Secretary Bryan at the State Department, and Secretary Daniels at the Navy Department all were anxiously utilizing every avenue for news. They tried to maintain an air of optimism, but failed to convince They knew there were American men and women in Mexico City and all interior Mexico. And they realized that the savagery of the native Mexican hardly could be restrained that the Americans had invaded his country with arms in their hands.

No word as to the plans of the administration was forthcoming early today. President Wilson himself sent strict injunction to his subordinates not to talk. There was to be no warning to the defiant Mexicans. They were to have no inkling of plans. But there was a business air at the navy and war departments that boded ill for the Mexicans who planed armed opposition to this government's demands.

It was certain that no orders to troops of further direction to Rear Admiral Badger would be made public until after the President had affixed his signature to the joint resolution passed by the Senate at the gray dawn of today and later to be approved by the House, indorsing his past acts and approving in advance any other steps he might take. But there was a direct wire set up from the War department to the army dock at Galveston, where four transports with a brigade of khaki lay tugging at their anchors. Milatary telegraphers manned each end of the wire waiting, just waiting. It did not need any great gift of foresight to realize the orders they were waiting for.

Nothing So Good for a Cough or Cold.

When you have a cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. There are many who consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unsurpassed. Mrs. J. Boroff, Elida, Ohio, says, "Ever since my daughter Ruth was cured of a severe cold and cough by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy two years ago, I have felt kindly disposed toward the manufacturers of that preparation. I know of nothing so quick to relieve a cough or cure a cold." For sale by all dealers.

A Cure For Sour Stomach.

Mrs. Wm. M. Thompson, of Battle Creek, Mich., writes, "I have been troubled with indigestion, sour stomach and bad breath. After taking two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets I am well. These tablets are splendid—none better." For sale by all dealers.

CHARGED WITH SHORTAGE.

Seaboard Ticket Agent Under Arrest On Embezzlement Warrant.

Richmond, Va., April 22.—George W. Poland, 27 years old, ticket agent, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with embezzling $150 of the funds of the Seaboard Air Line Railway. Poland, who lives with his wife and their month-old baby at 2105 Floyd Avenue, was released from custody under $500 bond for his appearance today in police court, permission to bail him having been granted by Magistrate J. P. McCarthy by Judge D. C. Richardson, of the Hustings Court. Security was furnished by George N. Reed.

The hounding by creditors is said to have caused the downfall of Poland. After being out of work for some time he obtained employment with the Seaboard last December in the passenger department at a salary of $65 a month. As soon as he secured his position, it is said, creditors began to press him for money due, he having contracted numerous debts while out of employment. He was duly presented with bills and threatened with bills and threatened with suits to secure judgment against him, in order to garnishee his salary. To satisfy them, it is charged, Poland from time to time took small sums from the cash drawer, intending to repay it from his salary.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Five hundred school boys of Topeka, Kan., who deserted their classrooms to parade through the streets, headed by an American flag and a fife and drum corps, yesterday forced a dozen track laborers, evidently Mexicans, to salute the flag. More than 1Gh school girls who followed a few blcoks behind the boys in a parade of their own cheered while the salute was delivered.

Fifteen members of Troop B, Tenth Cavalry, are held by Constitutionalist troops at a point just below the border between Naco and Hereford, Ariz. The troopers, who were on border patrol, wandered across the line Monday night without being aware of the fact. It is reported they were surrounded and taken prisoners by a large rebel detachment. Troop A, of the Tenth, left Fort Huachuca yesterday to investigate.

While Theodore Blokowsky, 36 years old, nad Walter Shatusky, 21, were working on a scaffold, 75 feet high, on the roof of St. Casimer's Holy Catholic Church at Shenadoah, Pa., which is being razed to build a new modern $100,000 edifice, the scaffold broke, precipitating both men to the ground and fatally injuring them.

After chloroforming members of the family, a band of yeggman blew open a safe in the home of William Stern, a jewelry broker, at No. 1814 North Seventh street, Philadelphia, early esterday morning and obtained $1,500 in old coins and antique jewelry. Evidently in their haste to pull off the job they failed to see a satchel containing $8,000 worth of cut and uncut gems which Stern had packed preparatory to taking a business trip, and which he had placed under his pillow. They also overlooked $1,000 worth of personal jewelry which had been worn by Miss Leah Stern, a daughter at the Mt. Sinai ball the night before.

New York, April 21.—Whether President Wilson's decision with regard to Mexico is wise or not, the country should support him, said former Speaker of the House Cannon, who arrived here yesterday from Bermuda.

The President is entirely competent to act," Mr. Cannon said. Congress is entirely competent to act. Whether his course has been a failure or not, whether his present decision is wise or not, I believe that that Congress should now support him. And whether his decision is wise or not, I hold that the country should support him. For the country is not a divided one, but united."
